

Important: This document provides a high-level summary of the key features, costs, obligations and risks of the product and serves as an acknowledgement of receipt. It is not intended to create, amend or replace any legal rights or obligations between the parties. The Customer should carefully review the Bank's General Terms and Conditions, product-specific Terms and Conditions, facility letters and other applicable contractual documents before proceeding. In the event of any inconsistency, the applicable contractual documents shall prevail, subject to applicable laws and regulations.

1. Product Overview

Import Bills for Collections allow NBF to handle documents received from a collecting/remitting bank for payment, acceptance or other release instructions. It supports importers using documentary collection rather than a Letter of Credit.

2. Available Product Types and Variants

Type / variant	How it differs	Typical use	Minimum balance / limit basis	Included services
Documents against Payment (DP)	Documents released after payment	Imports requiring payment before release	No minimum balance; account/funds required	Document handling
Documents against Acceptance (DA)	Documents released against accepted bill/undertaking	Usance collections	Account/facility may be required	Acceptance handling
Free of payment / special instructions	Release based on collection instruction	Non-standard document release	As approved	Document transfer/ return/ amendment

3. Product Suitability

Suitable for	May not be suitable for
Customers under documentary collection terms where supplier does not require LC undertaking.	Customers requiring NBF payment undertaking to supplier, which would require an LC or other facility.
NBF will assess the suitability of the proposed structure having regard to the Customer's business needs, transaction purpose, financial position, nature and scale of business, underlying trade transaction and applicable credit and risk considerations.

4. Eligibility Requirements

- Business customer / SME with satisfactory KYC, constitutional documents, ownership details and authorized signatories.
- Valid trade, commercial and transaction documents relevant to the product.
- NBF account, facility limit, cash margin and/or security may be required depending on product and approval.
- NBF may request additional information to meet regulatory, financial crime, credit and operational requirements.

5. Key Features and Services

Feature / service	Availability / explanation
Document receipt and notification	NBF receives and processes collection documents
Payment or acceptance support	Documents handled according to collection terms
Safe custody and return	Documents may be held, returned or amended per instructions
Transfers / payments	Available through account or transaction processing where relevant

6. Benefits of the Product

- Lower complexity than LC where supplier accepts collection risk.
- Can support trade document control until payment or acceptance.
- Useful for importers with established supplier relationships.

7. Key Stages and Timeline

Stage	Action	Responsible party
1	Customer submits application, mandate / board authorization where applicable, KYC, trade documents and supporting information.	Customer
2	NBF reviews documentation, conducts KYC, sanctions, compliance, credit and operational checks as applicable.	NBF

3	NBF confirms missing documents, pricing, collateral/margin requirements and final approval or rejection.	NBF
4	Customer signs final documents, pays/accepts applicable charges and completes activation or transaction instructions.	Customer / NBF

Where an application is rejected, NBF will provide the Customer with the reason for rejection in writing, except where disclosure is restricted or prohibited by applicable law.

Subject to receipt of all required information and supporting documentation and depending on the complexity of the request and completion of the Bank's review and approval processes, the Import Bills for Collections request is typically processed within 21 Business Days for new customers and 5 Business Days for existing customers.
